Korea International Trade Association

Seoul, Korea

Dear Mr. Koo:

Hogan & Hartson L.L.P. ("Hogan & Hartson") is honored to be engaged by the Korea International Trade Association ("KITA") to assist KITA and, through KITA, officials of the Korean Government and members of the Korean National Assembly, including their aides and assistants.

This letter is intended to formalize our retention, as required by applicable Rules of Professional Conduct. It sets forth how we propose to staff the matter, describes the billing arrangement, and addresses certain conflict of interest understandings.

Jeff Munk will be Project Director for this matter, with day-to-day responsibility. He will be supported, as required, by the Hon. Robert Michel and the Hon. Michael Barnes.

Hogan & Hartson will provide these services for a fee of $60,000, over a period of three months, as described below. Thereafter, KITA and Hogan & Hartson will review this arrangement, but it is the understanding of both parties that this is the beginning of a long-term relationship intended to be mutually beneficial and satisfactory to KITA and Hogan & Hartson.

KITA will pay Hogan & Hartson an advance retainer of $30,000, which retainer shall cover the period from December 28, 1998 through and including March 31, 1999, with the possibility that some of the services undertaken during this period will not be fully completed and may require additional efforts by Hogan & Hartson during the next three months, April 1, 1998, through June 30, 1999.

Chairman P. H. Koo
December 24, 1998

The remaining $30,000 will be paid when the services are fully completed, but in any event, not later than June 30, 1999.

The agreed-upon $60,000 fee will include reimbursement for such "minor charges" as telephone, telefax, photocopy and word processing. "Major charges," including travel expenses, meals, overtime, etc., undertaken with prior consultation with KITA, will be billed to KITA on a monthly basis and payment will be due within thirty days of KITA's receipt of our statement.

Hogan & Hartson is a large law firm with offices both in the United States and abroad. We may currently or in the future represent one or more other clients involved in transactions or having other contacts with KITA. For example, we may represent other clients in commercial transactions (including, for example, preparation and negotiation of agreements, licenses, leases, loans, securities offerings or underwritings, or other transactions involving KITA, on behalf of other clients where we do not represent KITA on the same matter), legislative/policy matters, or administrative proceedings that may involve or affect KITA. We understand that KITA consents to the firm's current and future representation of any such other clients without the need for any further consents from KITA, as long as there is no direct conflict of interest. We understand that no such direct conflict would exist where the representation of another client is not substantially and adversely related to the matters the firm is handling for KITA, or where the firm's representation of either KITA or another client involves legislative issues, policy issues, or administrative proceedings unrelated to the representation of the other. We do not view this advance consent to permit unauthorized disclosure or use of any client confidences.

This is to confirm that our client for purposes of this representation is KITA, and not any of its individual members, affiliated entities, or others whose interests it may represent. By undertaking this representation of KITA, we do not regard ourselves as being precluded from separately representing any of its individual members or from taking positions that may be adverse to the interests of any individual member. Although, in our work for KITA, we may provide assistance to the Korean Government and/or representatives of the Korean National Assembly, only KITA is our client.

Please note that, under certain circumstances, lawyers who make certain contacts with officials of the executive or legislative branches or federal agencies, or take other actions, on behalf of a foreign principal must publicly disclose such activities under the Foreign Agents Registration Act ("FARA"). If our activities on behalf of KITA trigger FARA's registration and reporting requirements (as it almost certainly will), we will have to file reports, which will be made available to the public, disclosing our representation of KITA, the general nature of our "lobbying" activities on behalf of KITA, and the firm's income from such activities.

If this correctly reflects our understanding, please sign, date, and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter. If you have any questions regarding any aspects of our representation, please call me.

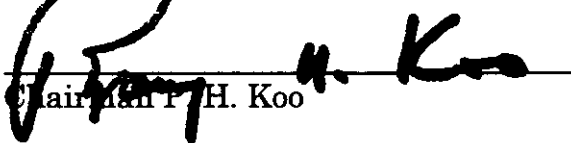

We look forward to working with you and your colleagues.

Sincerely,

 Hogan & Hartson LLP
